

Confessions of a Black Academic: A Memoir

In his latest book, Confessions of a Black Academic: A Memoir, retired university president Alvin J. Schexnider shares his deeply personal experiences as an African American academician and the blatant racial challenges he navigated as well as the signal achievements that defined a forty-year career. A political scientist and expert on urban policy, Schexnider applies his unique lens to take the reader on a journey from the early days of affirmative action and equal employment opportunity to the current era of diversity, equity and inclusion that is currently being dismantled.

The webinar will feature highlights of the book and its implications for the recruitment and retention of Black faculty.

AT 1:00 PM ET - 2:00 PM ET
