

PRESIDENT IN RESIDENCE SERIES

THINGS FALL APART: SOLVING THE HBCU LEADERSHIP VOLATILITY CRISIS

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24 AT 2:30 PM ET

Walter Kimbrough, CMSI and Proctor Institute President in Residence, will examine leadership volatility at Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). He'll analyze data on high presidential resignation rates and highlight considerations for prospective HBCU presidents and governing boards before accepting or extending offers.

SCAN TO REGISTER

SAMUEL DEWITT
PROCTOR INSTITUTE
for Leadership, Equity, & Justice

RUTGERS-NEW BRUNSWICK
Graduate School of Education

Center for MSIs

