

ANTHONY BENEZET: QUAKER, ABOLITIONIST, ANTI-RACIST

Join our webinar, led by Brandeis University Research Scholar David Chanoff, as we explore the life and impact of a visionary Anthony Benezet, who helped ignite American abolitionism, challenged the Atlantic slave trade, and shaped our national conversation on racial equality. Based on Chanoff's book Anthony Benezet: Quaker, Abolitionist, Anti-Racist, this talk reveals how Benezet fused radical Christianity with revolutionary democracy ideals to transform lives and institutions.
