

MAKING SCHOLARSHIP PUBLIC WEBINAR SERIES

The Samuel DeWitt Proctor Institute for Leadership, Equity and Justice will host a series of webinars that will offer best practices on making scholarship more accessible to the general public.

Writing Opinion Essays

Thurs., September 21, 2023 | 1:00 PM ET

This interactive session will offer steps for crafting op-eds based on your research for a wider audience

Turning Your Research Into a Report

Thurs., October 19, 2023 | 1:00 PM ET

This interactive session will offer insight into how to turn scholarship into a comprehensive and accessible report that attracts readers beyond an academic audience.

Writing Grant Proposals

Thurs., February 22, 2024 | 1:00 PM ET

This interactive session will discuss successful grant-writing strategies, and tools for effectively identify funding opportunities that align with your goals and research interests.

Writing Scholarly Books

Thurs., March 21, 2024 | 1:00 PM ET

In this workshop, participants will learn how to organize and write a scholarly, authored book, dedicate time to writing, craft a book proposal, and navigate the book publishing process.

All workshops are free to the general public. All workshops will be held virtually on Zoom.